How to Calculate Your Zakāh

كيفية حساب زكّاتك

1. Add up all your cash, bank balances, and gold/silver (at current market value).
2. Add the value of trade stock (if you are a business owner).
3. Add outstanding receivables you reasonably expect to recover.
4. Subtract current liabilities (debts payable within the year).
5. If the total is at or above the Niṣāb (R22,136.44), and you have held this amount for one lunar year, pay 2.5% as Zakāh.

Example: Total qualifying wealth = R100,000.

Zakāh = R100,000 × 2.5% = R2,500.

For a full calculation guide, see the "Zakāh on Business Inventory" article on the Jamiat Joburg website.

Who Can Receive Zakāh

مستحقو الزكاة

للفقراء والمساكين والعاملين عليها والمؤلفة قلوبهم وفي الرقاب والغارمين وفي سبيل الله وابن السبيل
إنما الصدقات

Allah specifies eight categories of Zakāh recipients in Sūrah al-Tawbah (9:60):

1. The poor (fuqarā') — those who have some means but less than the Niṣāb.
2. The needy (masākīn) — those who have nothing.

3. The Zakāh administrators ('āmilīn 'alayhā).
4. Those whose hearts are to be reconciled (mu'allafat al-qulūb).
5. To free slaves (fī al-riqāb).
6. The debtors (ghārimīn) — unable to pay their debts.
7. In the path of Allah (fī sabīlillāh).
8. The traveller (ibn al-sabīl) — stranded without means.

Zakāh cannot be given to: one's parents, grandparents, children, grandchildren, the husband/wife, a non-Muslim (with the exception of the 4th category), or a Sayyid (descendant of the Prophet ﷺ).

Lillah (general charity) may be given to anyone, including non-Muslims and Sayyids.
